

HERE AND THERE IN THE WHIRL OF SOCIETY

VACATION PLANS TAKE FORM AS MONTH OF JUNE NEARS

Bride Season Comes as School Days are Over

Graduates Receive Diplomas in Dainty Gowns; Kiddies Are Very Happy

Sweet girl graduates and talented young men have been holding the center of interest during the past week. White dresses, pink and red hose, dainty curls, and flushed faces; new suits, brilliant ties, and an air of greatness, have come more or less into the lives of many of the young folk of Ogden.

And the school kiddies are just as happy, for the week also closed their school for them.

Do you wonder that they are all singing, "No More Letin and No More French?"

With more roses, lilacs and red tulips, our June brides are stepping to the front.

Ogden young men and women are very much excited about several of the season's coming weddings. Dan Cupid is having the usual rush and he is continually worrying about his arrows and the wedding rings. He is very much afraid that his new order for arrows and rings will not come in time to satisfy the demand.

The wedding bell has been torn down and entirely decorated. New white ribbons and lilacs of the valley have been tied attractively around it. A long white streamer of ribbon has been left loose, so that each young and happy bride and adoring bridegroom may have the opportunity to ring the bell that breaks the news of their love and happiness to the world.

Frederick Moss will present a few of his pupils in a vocal piano concert at the First Congregational church, Friday evening, May 28, at 8:30 o'clock. The public has been invited to come and will be entertained with the following numbers:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Gale wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Cora Lorene, to Theodore M. Keyes. The wedding will take place in June.

Mrs. Mattie Ramey became the bride of Paul G. Bishop one day of the last week in Salt Lake. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Toomes of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Bishop is a well known resident of Ogden, and has a large circle of friends. Mr. Bishop is a prominent business man of Wyoming, but is a former resident of Ogden. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop left immediately after their wedding for a trip through points of interest in California. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Bishop will make their home in Salt Lake.

Miss Anna Powell, one of the teachers of the Madison school, was presented with a cameo ring by her students Friday morning. Other teachers of the building gathered in Miss Powell's room and the morning passed in a party with good fun for both the children and the teachers.

Misses Eva Cragun and Luella and Charlotte Stallings entertained Thursday evening at their home in honor of Miss Adella Warner, a bride of June. The rooms were artistically decorated with red peonies and tulips. A tray luncheon was served to thirty guests, after which, Miss Warner was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Biddle and their two children, Fred and Alice, have gone to Los Angeles, where they will spend several months for the benefit of Mr. Biddle's health.

Mrs. Soren V. Mollerup, one of the brides of the week, whose wedding took place last Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Shaughnessy. Mrs. Mollerup was formerly Miss Ora May Shaughnessy.

Miss Alice Stander of Bear River City and Miss Marguerite Burnhope of Tremonton were in Ogden during the week to attend the May fete and banquet given by the members of the Sacred Heart Alumnae association, Saturday, May 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hall entertained a number of their friends Thursday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burt of Shelby, Idaho, at their home in Harrisville Road. Lilacs adorned the rooms and filled the home with their fragrance. Other spring flowers were also used in decoration. Interesting games passed the evening almost too rapidly. At 12 o'clock

Mr. and Mrs. Orso Holbrook of West Sudbury, Mass., who have been visiting in Ogden for the past few days and who have been enjoying the interesting features of the city, have returned to their home, after an extended visit on the coast. Mr. Holbrook is a brother of Walter S. Holbrook and is well known among the residents of Ogden, having come to Ogden in 1868.

A musical play entitled, "The New Minister," was given Thursday evening at the First Congregational church.

Mrs. Mary N. Owens and daughter, Miss Lottie Owens, are visiting with Mrs. Owens and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Badger, in Burley, Idaho. They are expecting to visit many points of interest in Idaho before returning to Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bridges of 2930 Porter avenue were pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening by the members of the Ogden Britannia association. The evening was spent in games and music, after which a delicious luncheon was served. Those included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. H. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bitten, Miss Theodore Bitten, Miss Wyonana Bitten, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Pickett, Miss M. Pickett, Mrs. Ann Briggs, Mrs. Ann White, Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. T. Eckerley, H. Johnson, Mrs. D. T. Taylor, Mrs. C. M. Johnson, Miss B. School children of Ogden entertained their parents last Tuesday at the various schools. The programs prepared were under the personal direction of their teachers and under the supervision of Mrs. Sophie Weatherall Reed. Their work in the physical education department has been of the best, and their dances and drills were a source of entertainment for all. Children of the schools who took part were Central high students, Pingree, Lorin Farr school, Grant school, Quincy school and the Five Points school.

A very pretty arranged shower, at which Miss Emer Sanford was the guest of honor, was given Saturday last at the home of Miss Ivine Shields on Washington avenue. A clever recitation and musical review of the romance of the bride-to-be and her future husband was given by Miss Lorene Shields and Miss Dora Smith, violinist, with Miss Ivine Shields accompanying. Other features of the afternoon were equally enjoyable, together with the serving of a tempting luncheon and the opening of parcels, with the usual happy or humorous forecasts offered by the friends of the complimented guest.
